

DISASTER RESILIENCE

PITCH SESSION

- Location: Antwerp, Belgium
- Management School
- Experience: Experience in collaborative projects
- Contact:
 - Dr. Hugo Marynissen
 - Academic Director
 - Hugo.Marynissen@ams.ac.be
 - +32 473 894 260

SU-DRS01-2019

Human factors, and social, societal, and organisational aspects for disaster-resilient societies

- Experts on Safety Networks and Planning
- Experts on technology for decision making (AI, big data, ...)
- Partners in public safety

What are the future challenges and opportunities for emergency services and crisis organizations?

- Develop a future vision on the organization of emergency services,
- Great importance to scientific value of the research results, but also to their applicability,
- 3 levels: Professional, Corps, System
- 3 domains: Emergency & Public Management, Crisis Leadership, Technology Enabled High Performing Organization

Complementary skills we need for the consortium:

- Expertise in port safety,
- New technology in safety & crisis management,
- Experts on public sustaining networks

What we can provide to the consortium

- Experts/researchers on Crisis Management, Risk Management, Crisis Communication, Crisis Leadership
- Award winning 'Crisis Communication Work Process'*
- NeuroLeadership training & observation lab (war room)
- Partnerships: Antwerp Fire Zone, Antwerp Police Force, Port of Antwerp Authority, Federal Crisis Center

 '112 Award' by EENA, April 2017 for the strategic use of social media during the terror attacks in Brussels on March 22, 2016.*