

DISASTER RESILIENCE

PITCH SESSION

- Location: France / Saint-Cyr-au-Mont-d'Or (next to Lyon)
 - Professional training for senior police officers and top police managers, in management and leadership
 - The Research Centre of the ENSP, directed by a Professor of University habilitated to supervise research, is the interface between research teams and the different directions of the national police
- Experience:
 - ILEAnet (H2020) - Innovation by Law Enforcement Agencies networking
 - TARGET (H2020) - Training Augmented Reality Generalised Environment Toolkit
 - NETCHER (H2020 - under negotiation) – NETwork and digital platform for Cultural Heritage Enhancing and Rebuilding
- Contact:
 - Manon Oubrier & Marine Lechenault
 - ensp-res-rech-pn@interieur.gouv.fr
 - +33 (0)4 72 53 19 13

YOUR TARGETED TOPIC

SU-DRS01-2019

Human factors, and social, societal, and organisational aspects for disaster-resilient societies

List your 3 major needs

- 1. The National Police must cope with rapid and varied technological, societal and behavioral changes.*
- 1. The National Police must have better anticipation capacities and implementation of strategic decisions.*
- 1. The National Police needs new tools for decision making in a digital environment and extreme situation.*

- Analysis and processing of enormous quantities of data, together with improved imaging techniques to allow for the identification of suspicious events or of criminals.
- Other LEAs
- IT experts
- First Responders