1) PROJECT INFORMATION

Field of expertise related to the topic: Project, financed from DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) in the framework of Stability Pact for South Eastern Europe, was developed in the period 2001-2013. Other partners were Economic University of Hungary (later called Economics and Polytechnic University, Budapest), University of Sarajevo, University of South Eastern Europe,

Tetovo, FYROM.

The main outputs of the project are:

1. Mobility of academic staff

All the academic staff of Department of Economics and others from other departments of Faculty of Economy visited University of Bamberg. Visits were long and short term ones. The aim of the visits was:

- Develop new curricula for all the departments of Faculty of Economy
- Preparation of teaching materials using the experience of the German colleagues
- Preparation and publishing of scientific work both in Albanian scientific journals and in the publishing series of University of Bamberg (BERG-working paper).

Faculty of Economy was visited from most of the German academic staff.

2. Drafting of new Curricula with the help of German colleagues of University of Bamberg. This process was necessary because Faculty of Economy was restructuring to be in line with the requests of Bologna Agreement.

3. Bilateral mobility of students.

4. Opening and functioning of study program Master of European Economic Studies with bilateral contribution.

5. Help junior academic staff through bilateral visits, consultations and organization of the annual Seminar for European PHD Students (EDS) and publishing of all the papers. These scientific organization helped 15 academic staff of Department of Economics to fulfill the requirements to get the PHD grade.

6. A bilateral long term agreement was signed with University of Bamberg for collaboration in offering diplomas in Bachelor and PHD level.

Other projects where Department of Economics was a partner:

1. Project Tempus with University of Thessaloniki, Athens. (1992-1998)
