1) PROJECT INFORMATION

Field of expertise related to the topic: questionnaire design, and quantitative analysis of data on gender based violence

Potential contribution to the project: quantitative research

Role in the project:

- Research Dissemination Other
- Training Technology Development

Project idea: I do not have a precise research project yet but I am open to discuss this together with potential partners. However, I have just finished a study like this with an online questionnaire on gender based violence and its costs, addressed to the employees of 7 European multinational companies; and I also wrote a contribution to a report on sexual harassment and its costs for the National Academy of Science in Washington DC couple of years ago. Moreover, I already participated in European projects like Horizon and coordinated various national projects. I work as a professor of economics and senior researcher at the Paris School of Economics, one of the leading economics department in Europe and we have considerable expertise in the area of research grant applications.
