

Partner search

Date (30-09-2019)

- (*) Relevant topic in work programme

- ENERGY
- SMART CITIES AND COMMUNITIES
- RENEWABLE ENERGY SOLUTIONS
- BUILDING IN ENERGY TRANSITION
- SMART CITIZEN-CENTRED ENERGY SYSTEM

- Quick description of the project

Support innovative schemes for public building renovation
Developing the use of RES in public authorities energy mix
Taking advantage of Internet of Things to develop new solution for energy efficiency in public buildings
Developing smart public lightning

- (*) Description of the expertise proposed (up to 1000 characters)

Monitoring of 2500 public buildings
Owner of gas and electrical network supply, organise and control electric and gas supply
Managing public lighting of hundreds of local communities
Representing urban and rural areas
Exploiting hundreds of Renewable Energy production sites (solar, wood boiler...)
Offering a territory for experimentation

- Keywords describing the expertise proposed (up to 10 words)

-

Organisation information

Organisation and country:

Syndicat Intercommunal des Energies de la Loire - France

Type of organisation:

Enterprise SME Academic Research institute Public Body Other: Association

Former participation in FP European projects?

Yes No

Web address:

www.siel42/fr/english

Description of the organisation:

Founded in 1950, the Syndicat Intercommunal d'Energies du département de la Loire (short: SIEL) is a departmental corporation (mixed syndicate) that acts on the behalf of municipalities and their associations in the field of energy and digitalization.

Our role :

- Organisation and control of the public electricity and gas supply (16 000 km of electric cables and 2 330km of gas pipes)
- Street lighting and availability of electric stream
- Develop Renewable Energy solutions
- Support local authorities in their energy savings behaviours

(*) Contact details

Contact person name	GAYET ALINE
Telephone	+33 4 77431144
E-mail	gayet@siel42.fr
Country	France

(*) –Mandatory